

An organizational chart assists the Council, employees, and the public in identifying responsibilities and appropriate lines of communication. The chart should provide a pictorial representation of the organization of responsibilities within the South Slave educational system.

REGULATIONS

1. The Council is the final arbiter.
2. Policies of the Council take precedence over the chart.
3. Contractual agreements between the Council and its employees supersede this chart.
4. The chart will be updated as needed and sent out to all DEA offices and schools located in the South Slave Region.
